

Katrina NAUT

U4SSC Vice-Chairmen

Doctor in Law from the Universidad Iberoamericana (UNIBE), Dominican Republic, with a Master's Degree in International Trade from Ajou University, South Korea in the framework of the Korea International Cooperation Agency (KOICA) Scholarship Program and a Master's in Economics, with Specialization in International Economics and International Trade of the Pontifical Catholic University Mother and Teacher (PUCMM) and Paris I University Pantheon-Sorbonne, France.

In addition, she has a third master's degree in Public Management from the Global Institute of Higher Studies in Social Sciences (IGLOBAL) and the José Ortega Gasset - Gregorio Marañón Foundation, Spain.

Currently, she is Ambassador, Permanent Representative of the Dominican Republic to the International Telecommunications Union (ITU) and Other International Organizations to the United Nations (WTO, WIPO, UNCTAD, UNITAR and UNRISD).

Previously, she was Executive Director of Dominican Institute of Telecommunications (INDOTEL) from August 2016 to September 2018 and was Director General of the Foreign Trade and International Trade Management Administration (DICOEX) of the Ministry of Industry and Commerce of the Dominican Republic from 2006 to 2012.

She has been a panelist and lecturer in Africa, Central America, the Caribbean, Europe, Asia and the United States, invited by international organizations such as the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), the International Center for the Settlement of Disputes and the Georgetown University, the Spanish Arbitration Center and University of Comillas in Madrid, the Pontifical Catholic University Mother and Teacher (PUCMM), the Human Development and Security Institute of Ewha's Womans University, Ajou University of South Korea, business associations in the Dominican Republic and abroad, among others, in telecommunications, foreign trade, investor-state dispute resolution , and matters relating to the World Trade.